

Gospel of Matthew 20: 29-34

Once when Jesus was leaving the town of Jericho, two blind men were sitting beside the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, "Lord! Son of David, have pity on us." People nearby scolded them and told them to keep quiet, but they only shouted more loudly "Lord! Son of David, have pity on us." Jesus stopped, called them over and said, "What do you want me to do for you?" They said to him, "Lord, let us have our sight back." Jesus felt pity for them and touched their eyes. Immediately their sight returned and they followed him along the road.
